

ERASMUS+ INTERNATIONAL CREDIT MOBILITY PROGRAMME
CALL FOR APPLICATIONS MOBILITY GRANTS FOR BACHELOR STUDENTS AT UNIVERSIDAD CARLOS III DE MADRID

The Erasmus+ Program aims to improve the quality of Higher Education and to develop its European dimension, by strengthening transnational cooperation between Higher Education Institutions, promoting mobility and improving transparency and academic recognition for skills and qualifications within the European Union.

Within the framework of the Erasmus+ KA71-HED International Credit Mobility (ICM) Program, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (UC3M) has obtained funds through the projects 2024-1-ES01-KA171-HED-000230722 and 2025-ES01-KA171-HED-000331483 for the mobility of undergraduate students of Non-European Partner Universities to be carried out in the 2026/27, or exceptionally 2027/28, and should end before 31 July 2028.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

1. Purpose of the Call

Call for mobility stays at Universidad Carlos III de Madrid for bachelor students from the following participating Higher Education Institutions:

Region 1. Balkans: Albania (Universiteti Aleksander Moisiu Durres, Universiteti i Tiranes), Bosnia y Herzegovina (Univerzitet u Istocnom Sarajevu, Univerzitet u Sarajevu), Kosovo (Universiteti i Prishtines, University of Mitrovica), Montenegro (Javna Ustanova Univerzitet Crne Gore Podgorica, Univerzitet Donja Gorica Podgorica).

Region 3. Mediterranean: Egypt (The American University in Cairo).

Region 5. Asia: The Philippines (Ateneo de Manila University and Mapua University).

Mobilities announced in this call should be carried out in 2026-27 during the period of academic activity based on the academic calendar of the host university. Exceptionally, mobility can be postponed to 2027-28 academic year. In any case, all mobilities should end before 31 July 2028.

2. Grants

The selected students will benefit from a tuition fee waiver for courses taken at UC3M, notwithstanding other fees for the use of certain services or activities that might be applicable.

The Erasmus+ grant is a contribution to the costs of the planned Erasmus+ mobility period as follows:

The mobility period can be from a minimum of 2 months to a maximum of 5 months. The grant will be paid in case the mobility comprises an on-site stay of a minimum of 2 months.

The grant will also cover the travel assistance insurance expenses corresponding to the general policy offered by UC3M to international and exchange students.

The selected participants are free to make travel and accommodation arrangements that best suit their needs. Important: For booking their flights and accommodation, selected participants need to advance their own funds since the mobility grant will be paid only once their stay begins (see procedures for grant payment in section 7). It is highly advisable to make bookings (flights, accommodation etc.) on conditions that allow full reimbursement in case of cancellation of travel.

3. Inclusion

Students from disadvantaged backgrounds, with special needs or disabilities are encouraged to apply. They may receive additional funding to cover costs directly related to their participation in the mobility.

The criteria to be applied are defined at national level by the National Agencies in agreement with National Authorities:

Applicable rules	Amount
Participants from disadvantaged backgrounds may be eligible for additional funding if they meet one of the following criteria:

• Recipient of state aid for studies or a fee waiver. • Having refugee status, subsidiary protection or having applied for international protection in the sending country. • Having a certified disability equal to or greater than 33 per cent. • Having a duly certified minimum income or a similar subsistence minimum of the family unit. • Being in a situation of persons at risk of social exclusion, duly certified. • Large or single-parent families. • Report by the social services of the appropriate administration certifying being in a situation of special need and social emergency, duly certified. • Officially certified victims of terrorism, gender violence or orphans. • Officially certified situations of dependence, or of participants with responsibility for dependent persons. To be duly documented by the applicant and confirmed by the sending institution. Applicants should prove their disadvantaged status by attaching the official documentation certifying it, together with the rest of the documents. The number of top-up grants reserved for disadvantaged participants from each geographical region is indicated in section 2. Grants of this call.	Top-up grant of 250€ per month
Participants with special needs or disabilities, whose additional costs cannot be covered through the above top-up grant, can apply to have 100% of their additional costs covered. Such additional costs can be for special accommodation, transportation, preparatory visits and expenses of accompanying persons. Eligible applicants: • Must have a certified disability equal to or greater than 33 per cent, or • Have duly accredited physical, mental or health-related conditions, such as serious or chronic illnesses, which prevent participation in mobility. The request for the additional costs must be presented by the applicant, and have the support of the sending institution. Additional funding will be subject to approval by the Spanish National Agency.	Real cost (or 100% of eligible costs)

4. Eligibility Requisites

Applicants must fulfill the following requisites:

- To be nominated by the sending University as an exchange student within the framework of the Erasmus+ Interinstitutional Agreement signed between UC3M and the partner institutions.
- If planned mobility activities will be conducted in a language that is not the applicant's native language, to have an appropriate level of the language of instruction, B2 being the minimum level. The sending institution will check that the applicant has the required level before being nominated.

- c) To be enrolled for undergraduate degree studies in the sending institution at the time of application and also during the mobility.
- d) To submit their complete application within the deadline.

5. Application and Deadline

The sending universities will pre-select the candidates according to the following procedure:

1. Nominate the candidates in the traditional UC3M online nomination portal.
2. In Addition, the sending universities will have to send to UC3M, by email to erasmuska171@uc3m.es, the following information on the nominated candidates that sending universities pre-selected for the grant:
 - A) Learning Agreement (Annex I) signed by the applicant and the sending institution, scanned signatures are accepted. Candidates should complete only the 1st page of the Learning Agreement.
 - B) Motivation Letter written by the candidate (free format) explaining the reasons to participate in the Erasmus+ Program.
 - C) The Grade Point Average (GPA) of the bachelor student.

Applications may be submitted up to and including the deadline of 30 October 2026.

6. Selection Process and Evaluation Criteria

The selection process of the grant beneficiaries will be based on the principles of equity, fairness and transparency among those candidates nominated and pre-selected by the sending universities. It shall be carried out by the UC3M Evaluation Committee, which shall consist of:

- Vice-Rector for Internationalization at UC3M (or the person delegated by the same), who will act as President.
- Head of Non-European Mobility at UC3M.
- Erasmus+ KA171 ICM Coordinator at UC3M, who will act as Secretary.

The Committee will take into account the following criteria and scales to award the grants:

- Grade Point Average (GPA)

If two or more applications are of similar quality, the decision will be guided by giving priority to applicants from disadvantaged backgrounds, with special needs or disabilities, or according to the information provided by partner institutions. The motivation letter will be taken into consideration between applicants who have similar qualifications (GPA) and backgrounds/with special needs or disabilities.

The Vice-Rector for Internationalization will award the grants in the light of the proposal made by the Evaluation Committee, which will also establish a waiting list of candidates who are not awarded the grant.

The number of available grants established in section 2 is a minimum that will be awarded. Depending on the availability of credit, further grants may be generated, or extensions may be granted. If new grants are awarded, candidates will be called from the reserve list resulting from the selection process described above.

The resolution will be published on the UC3M website:

<https://www.uc3m.es/internacional/convocatoria-erasmus-credit-mobility-ka171#gradoymaster>

The successful applicants will accept the grant by e-mail sent to erasmuska171@uc3m.es within 7 calendar days of the publication of the decision. In the subject of the e-mail, applicants must indicate "Name and Surname, University of Origin", and in the body of the message the acceptance or non-acceptance of the grant.

Non-acceptance will be understood as a renunciation of the grant, which will be allocated to the candidate who occupies the next place on the reserve list, and so on.

7. Obligations of the Beneficiaries

Acceptance of the grant by the beneficiary implies compliance with the rules laid down in this call for applications, and in particular:

- Carrying out the stay on the dates established in section 1 of this Call for Applications.
- Signing the Erasmus+ Programme documents: Learning Agreement, Grant Agreement.
- Completing the required procedures, filling in and signing the necessary documents as per the Erasmus+ Programme before, during, and after the mobility period, and meeting the deadlines established by UC3M. These include, among others, the Learning Agreement, Grant Agreement, and the EU Survey.
- The mobility period must be a minimum of 2 months.
- To obtain the visa for the stay.
- Complying with any other obligations inherent to the Erasmus+ ICM Program and the internal rules of the sending and the receiving institution.

During mobility, bachelor students are expected to follow the chosen courses and take exams as required. The credit workload at the receiving institution should be comparable to a full-time credit workload at the home institution

8. Grant Payment Procedure

The final amount of the grants will be calculated taking into account the duration of the real mobility within the official semester period at UC3M.

Upon their arrival to Spain, the student needs to open a Spanish bank account, where the grant will be paid via a bank transfer. The first instalment of 70% of the total grant will be paid once the student has registered at the host university, signed the Grant Agreement and received the certificate of arrival. The second instalment of 30% of the total grant will be paid at the end of the mobility when the student has completed the online EU survey based on the real duration of the stay.

9. Refund of the Erasmus+ ICM Grant

The sums received shall be repaid in the event of failure to comply with any of the obligations laid down in this Call for Applications, except in cases of force majeure.

10. Academic Recognition

Credits earned by each beneficiary at UC3M will be recognized at the sending institution according to the Study Plan proposed by the student and approved by the academic advisor and reflected in the Learning Agreement that must be signed before the mobility starts.

If the beneficiary waives his/her place without good cause before finishing the entire stay, the courses taken at UC3M up to the date of the waiver may be left without academic recognition.

11. Information

UC3M will provide the student with information and academic advice upon arrival.

The following email erasmuska171@uc3m.es will act as first contact point for applicants, and will guide them on the application procedure.

Should any doubt arise over the interpretation of this Call, the Selection Committee will decide and interpret, in any case, in the light of the guidelines of Erasmus+ Program.
