

ANNEX BASES FOR THE CALL

ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME KEY ACTION 171: Mobility of people for learning purposes among programme countries and non-associated countries

Student mobility for studies (SMS)

2024 Project

Basis 1: Purpose of the call

This mobility programme is based on EU Regulation 2021/817 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2021 establishing the "Erasmus+" programme for education, training, youth and sport of the European Union. It covers the period 2021-2027 and applies to all types and levels of education and vocational training.

The purpose of this call is to encourage mobility among students of the University of Pristina in Kosovska Mitrovica and the University of Zaragoza – UNIZAR (Spain) – for better interfacing with European education institutions. It will allow participants to undertake part of their studies in a University of the European Higher Education Area, with guaranteed academic recognition and achievement, and adaptation to their curricular profile. This programme contemplates the educational value of the exchange, by making it possible for the student to experience different teaching systems and the varied social and cultural aspects.

This call is intended to select one student from the University of Pristina in Kosovska Mitrovica participating in the programme as a non-associated country, to undertake a period of studies at the University of Zaragoza – UNIZAR (Spain) – within the Erasmus+ Programme.

Student mobility is part of the KA1 Action in the European Union's ERASMUS+ Programme in the field of higher education. General information on programme objectives, conditions and requirements can be found on the 2024 Erasmus Programme guide website: <https://erasmus-plus.ec.europa.eu/programme-guide/erasmus-programme-guide/introduction>
